Victoria,

As to your request about extending the page limits for potential motion to compel briefing, Inteliquent takes no position on this request but will not oppose it.

 EXTERNAL MESSAGE

Devin and Joe,

I am following up on my letter dated December 30, 2022, regarding the status of our meet and confer discussions on Inteliquent's responses to Plaintiffs' Second Request for Production of Documents. We heard Michael Pullos say at the hearing yesterday that Inteliquent's response letter is forthcoming this week. Nonetheless, as noted in my letter, we are at impasse on 54 of the 65 requests (not including No. 3 on CDRs, which is the subject of separate meet and confer discussions). While the parties continue to work through the outstanding issues on the remaining requests, Plaintiffs will be preparing a motion to compel production. It is not possible to brief the issues on such a large number of requests fully and adequately in only 15 pages. We would like to know your position on a motion seeking leave to extend the page limit under Local Rule 7.1 to 30 pages for Plaintiffs' initial memorandum of law in support of the motion, as well as 30 pages for Inteliquent's memorandum of law in opposition.

Best regards,

Victoria
